A.C. Equipment needs: J. Rivard advised the committee that that animal control is working on the equipment needs for the center. With money received from donations we have been able to put a fence line down the middle of the outside dog run creating two runs instead of one. We are purchasing a television for the front lobby. Many more projects developing.

NEW BUSINESS Barn cat definition: J. Rivard presented a barn cat definition to the committee stating that Article XVI does not at this time have a definition however it relates to it.
The committee wanted a clear understanding of what a barn cat program is.

Adoption fee changes: J. Rivard gave documentation to the committee of animal adoption fees from surrounding animal controls and rescue groups.
It was the recommendation of the committee to go with a fee change adoption of $125.00 for dogs and 80 for cats.

With an added reduce fee of $85, 00 after the animal has been up for adoption for more then 14 days. $65,00 if more then 21 days and $45,00 dollars if more then 21 days.
Employee discount of 85.00???

OTHER BUSINESS

Joe Kozlowski brought forth a concern asking if the volunteers could have a cell phone number to call incase of a problem while waking dogs or working with the animal.

INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION

The committee did not have any comments or questions about the end of the month report.
